MAHATMA'S TRIUMPH: RELIEF FOR MILLIONS

Touching Scenes At Breaking Of Fast

Appeal To Nation To Observe Next Sunday As Day Of Thanksgiving

(Through A. P. And U. P.)

POONA, March 3.

Mahatma Gandhi broke his fast at 9 a.m. to-day.

The fast breaking was preceded by the usual ceremony of prayers and devotional songs in which all the inmates of the detention camp participated.

The ceremony was simple one whereafter a glass of orange juice diluted with water was handed to Mahatma Gandhi by Mrs. Kasturba Gandhi, and Mahatma Gandhi, after a few minutes of silent meditation, slowly sipped the orange juice.

This ended the 21 days fast.

DOCTORS' COMMUNIQUE

The following 'communique' is issued under the signature of Dr. B. C. Roy, Major-General R. H. Candy, Dr. M. D. D. Gilder, Dr. S. Nayar, Lieut.-Col. M. G. Bhandari and Lieut-Col. B. Z. Shah:—

"After prayers, Mr. Gandhi broke his fast at 9-30 this morning, with orange juice slightly diluted with water. He showed signs of strain. He is weak, but cheerful".

A thanksgiving meeting for the successful termination of Mahatma Gandhi's fast to-day was be held in Poona this morning in the Morarjee Gokuldas Sanatorium.

Prayers were offered for the long life of Mahatma Gandhi and relevant passages from religious books such as Gita, Kuran, the Bible, Zenda Avesta were recited.

Mr. Horace Alexander conducted the recitation from the Bible while Prof. Tan Yun Shah of the Viswabharati recited Buddhist prayers.

Aney Joins Prayers

Among others who joined the prayers were Mr. M. S. Aney, ex-Member of the Viceroy's Executive Council, Lady Thakersey, Mahatma Gandhi's two sons, Mr. Devadas Gandhi and Mr. Ramdas Gandhi.

On the termination of Mr. Gandhi's fast the arrangements for his detention and that of the other persons detained at the Aga Khan's Palace which obtained before the fast have now been resumed, states a 'communique' issued from New Delhi.

Such extra medical attendance and nursing as may be necessary, will continue for the present.

It is understood that Mahatma Gandhi will be given fruit juice several times a day and his normal diet will be restored gradually.

KIDNEYS & LIVER AFFECTED

Now that the fast over, medical circles are busy discussing the reaction of the fast on Gandhiji during the next few days.

According to their considered view Gandhiji's kidneys and liver have been certainly affected due to the long duration of the fast at the ripe age of 74 and they are inclined to regard the next two or three weeks as a very "delicate period", when the tissues will be rebuilt and therefore extremely careful nursing and complete rest for some time will be absolutely necessary.

How Mahatma Broke His Fast

POONA, March 3.

The earliest to arrive at the Aga Khan Palace was Dr. B. C. Roy and at 9 a.m., the Surgeon-General to the Government of Bombay, Major-General R. H. Candy, Lt.-Col. M. G. Bhandari and Lt.-Col. B. Z. Shah drove in.

After communal prayers, those present observed a five-minute silence of meditation. With folded hands Mahatma Gandhi was seen to close his eyes and was in meditation.

Prayers over, Kasturba, wife of Mahatma Gandhi, handed him a glass containing six ounces of orange juice. Before sipping it the Mahatma in a feeble voice thanked the Doctors for the great care and attention which they had bestowed on him, and said that more than anything else it was their love and affection to him that must have saved his life. Further, the Mahatma told those present, there must be something higher than the Doctors' powers that saved him. He is reported to have taken 20 minutes to sip the juice.

Looking worn out and grave, the Mahatma reclined propped up by pillows on the bed.

It is presumed that Dr. M. D. D. Gilder would now remain with Mahatma Gandhi.

Dr. Roy Takes Leave

POONA, March 3.

Amidst touching scenes Dr. B. C. Roy took leave of Gandhiji after the latter's breaking the fast this morning. With tears in his eyes Gandhiji is understood to have expressed his sincere gratefulness to Dr. Roy for the utmost care he had taken during the period of the fast, and recalled on this occasion the illustrious memory of Dr. Ansari in whose footsteps Dr. Roy has stepped so far as Gandhiji was concerned.

IMPLICATIONS OF FAST

Prayers and devotional songs over, Gandhiji it is understood spoke to those present about the implications of the fast and his survival of the ordeal as he understood them and briefly narrated the working of his mind in the various phases of the fast.

Immediately after the breaking of the fast Dr. Roy was closeted with all other attending doctors and discussed for more than an hour the detailed programme during Gandhiji's convalescence. Dr. Roy who went to the Palace at 8 in the morning came out a little later than 11 a.m. with a beaming smile on his face.

SRIVASTAVA FOR THANKSGIVING PRAYER

NEW DELHI, March 3.

The Civil Defence Member, Sir Jwala Prasad Srivastava has issued the following statement to the Press:—

"To-day controversial politics is silenced by the universally welcome news that Mahatma Gandhi has survived his penance. The fast which convulsed the country for three weeks is over. Let us all join in a thanksgiving prayer to the Almighty for having spared the life of this great 'Tapasvi'. Let us pray too, for the unity of India—a task to which Mahatma Gandhi has dedicated himself—and hope that the purifying influence of his fast will lead to the resolving of the unfortunate political deadlock and that all parties will now shed their mutual jealousies, fears and suspicions and unite in working together for the welfare of the Indian people."

RELIEF FOR MILLIONS

COLOMBO, March 3.

Evening papers here reflect the relief with which the news of the termination of Mahatma Gandhi's fast has been received by the public.

The "Ceylon Observer" says, while immense relief will be felt by many millions that the Mahatma has survived his ordeal, the opportunity should not be missed for a change of heart that would end the deadlock.—A. P.

SPIRIT TRIUMPHS OVER FLESH

Our Forecasts Proved To Be Erroneous, Says Dr. Roy

POONA, March 3.

Full control of the mind over the body and strong determination to live, for which he fought every inch of ground—This is how Gandhiji could tide over the crisis that threatened his life at one stage of the fast.

Thus observed Dr. B. C. Roy in an exclusive interview to the "United Press" prior to his departure from Poona this afternoon.

"Gandhiji helped his doctors so far as elimination was concerned", added Dr. Roy. "He tried to take as much water as possible—plain water and water mixed with salts or with sweet lime juice which also contains salts. The quantity was varied by him; he only took just the minimum quantity necessary to make water palatable. That this amount of juice did not alter the stage of the fast was definitely proved by the fact that urine examinations and blood examinations continued to show the presence of waste products which in normal persons might cause uraemia ending in a coma and death.

"In the world of to-day, the physical organs of the body get more and more under control of the mind. Many of the physical functions like hunger and thirst and different types of secretions and excretions are being brought more and more under the control of higher centres. That is why the modern man is so complex as compared to the village man of older days".

"In the case of Gandhiji". Dr. Roy continued, "partly as a result of the forces operating in all of us and partly as a result of self-discipline by which he has deliberately brought the physical functions under the control of his mind, functions of the different organs of his body are being more and more directed by the central nervous system.

"Therefore, our forecasts proved to be erroneous. We could only depend upon the law of averages and could only give our opinion on the basis of what would happen to an average men under similar conditions".—United Press.

DAY OF THANKSGIVING

POONA, March 3.

The following appeal has been issued over the signatures of Messrs M. S. Aney, C. Rajagopalachariar, N. C. Kelkar, Horace Alexander, Prof. Tan Yan-Shan, Syed Abdulla Brelvi, Amritlal V. Thakkar, Shrimati Janaki Devi and Lady Vithaldas Thackersey:

"We appeal to men and women throughout the country to observe the next Sunday, the 7th of March, as a day of thanksgiving to God that Mahatma Gandhi has safely passed through the ordeal of his fast, and to offer prayers in temples, mosques, churches and other places of worship or in special gatherings".

MAHATMA'S BIG MAIL BAG

When Mahatma Gandhi was fasting, his mail bag was by far the biggest he had so far received.

He received hundreds of telegrams from all over the country praying for safe ending of the fast or urging him to give it up. It is doubtful if Mahatma Gandhi could have gone through them. The doctors who attended on Mahatma Gandhi did not escape public attention. Gratuitous advice as to how the patient should be treated poured in from professional medical men, quacks, religious heads and others. One man from far south sent a packet of "Vhibhuti" (sacred ashes) and implored those attending on Mahatma Gandhi that the talcum should be rubbed over Gandhiji.—A. P.

THANKSGIVING GATHERING

A largely attended cosmopolitan thanksgiving gathering was held at the Malabar Hill residence of Sophia Wadia at 9 a.m. on Wednesday, to celebrate the successful termination of Mahatma Gandhi's fast. Sophia Wadia announced the programme of readings from the great scriptures of the world. These included readings from the 'Gita', both in Sanskrit and in English, from the Zoroastrian 'Gathas', from the 'Koran' both in the Arabic original and in English translation, from the Bible, and from a Mahayana Buddhist Text, 'The Voice of the Silence.' There were several beautiful vocal numbers with vina accompaniment by the well-known South Indian Artist Shrimati Lalita Venkatram and Bhajans by Shri Tulsidas of the Hansraj Morarji Public School.

Among those present were Mrs. Hansa Mehta, Mrs. K. C. Sen, Dewan Bahadur H. L. Kaji, Mrs. Bapsey Sabavala, Mr. P. A. Narielwala, Mrs. Kulsum Sayani, Mr. B. M. Motiwalla of the Social Service League, Mrs. Krishna Hutheesing, Mr. and Mrs. Ismail, Dr. J. F. Bulsara, Mrs. Hiranbai Gilder, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Majumdar, Mrs. Shirin A. P. Marzban, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Jijibhoy, Mr. and Mrs. Naik of Bangalore and the Misses Munshi.

AT FELLOWSHIP SCHOOL

Children, Staff and Parents assembled on Wednesday in the Fellowship School Assembly Hall and prayed for Gandhiji's long life on termination of his fast of 21 days. Sjt. Jamnadas Dwarkadas addressed the gathering and a telegram was sent to Gandhiji as follows:—"Children of the Fellowship School assembled for prayers this morning. Wish you long life for service of India and humanity."

JAP FIGHTERS TURN BACK

Enemy Planes On Chittagong Refuse To Give Fight

NEW DELHI, March 3.

Last night Royal Air Force bombers attacked objectives at Sagain an important rail and river communications centre on the Irrawaddy near Mandalay, says an India Command joint war communique. Bombs were seen to burst in the target area and fires were started.

On Monday an R. A. F. fighter patrol shot up enemy transport in the Pintha area. At two places railway trucks were damaged. At another place six large lorries were set on fire and a number of the Japanese working on them were killed. Other fighters engaged a formation of enemy aircraft over the Maungdaw area and damaged at least two of them. From these and other operations two of our aircraft are missing but the pilot of one is safe.

Yesterday morning about ten enemy fighters appeared over the Chittagong area but turned back before our fighters could engage them.

U. S. AIR FORCE BUSY

Widespread damage was inflicted on Japanese military installations in northern Burma on March 1 and 2 by aircraft of the Tenth U. S. Air Force, says a Communique issued by Rear Echelon Headquarters United States Army Forces, China-Burma-India.

Our fighters, armed with light bombs and machine-guns, on March 1 made continuous low-altitude attacks over a wide area, with the following results: A bridge at Yupannga was damaged, at Taihpaga, buildings occupied by the enemy were shot up and a large fire left burning, at Maingkwan trucks were strafed and four fires caused, at Wehsi four bungalows used by troops were set afire, and at Nsopzup, in addition to much damage among buildings occupied by the Japs, two trucks carrying bridge material were machine-gunned and reported probably destroyed.

On March 2, a large formation of medium bombers with fighter escort attacked Myitkyina, which has long served as a base of enemy operations, delivering a weight of some fifteen tons of bombs. It was estimated 75 per cent of the projectiles struck in the target area, causing great damage to barracks and military installations. Fighters of one formations strafed four trucks in the Nsopzup area and another formation attacked Wehsi, causing two large fires.

From these operations all our aircraft returned safely.—A.P.

Russians Attack Kuban Bridgehead: Hitler's All-Out Effort To Hold Stalino

BERLIN, March 3.

The German Radio announces that Rzhev has been evacuated.

ANNOUNCING THE EVACUATION OF RZHEV THE GERMAN RADIO SAID: "RZHEV WHICH HAS BEEN A SCENE OF MANY SUCCESSFUL DEFENSIVE BATTLES IN THE PAST MONTHS HAS BEEN EVACUATED BY GERMAN TROOPS ACCORDING TO PLAN IN THE COURSE OF MOVEMENTS TO SHORTEN THE LINE."

SOVIET ATTACK ON KUBAN BRIDGEHEAD

Today's German communique states that Soviet troops again attacked the Kuban bridgehead and the Mius position. South-west of Orel, strong Soviet pressure against the German front continues.

MOSCOW: Hitler has lost at least 300 tanks in ten days' armoured clash still raging south of Kramatorskaya in the heart of the Donetz Basin where he is making an all-out effort to hold Stalino. His last big vital rail junction there.

The German radio reports that Soviet troops yesterday resumed their attacks on a broad front in the area between Veliki Luki and Kholm. These towns lie to the south-west of Demiansk.

Reuter points out that Veliki Luki, retaken by the Russians last autumn is 30 miles from the railway the cutting of which would isolate Hitler's armies round Leningrad from those on the central Moscow front.

Sind Assembly Demands Pakistan For Muslims

KARACHI, March 3.

A resolution on Pakistan—the first of its kind to be passed in any Provincial Legislature—was passed by the Sind Legislative Assembly to-day.

Twenty-four votes were cast in favour of the resolution and three against—the latter consisting of the two Hindu Ministers, Dr. Hemandas and Rai Saheb Gokuldas, and one Hindu Parliamentary Secretary. All the European members remanded neutral.

Earlier, after the resolution had been admitted by the speaker the non official Hindu bloc led by Mr Nichaldas Wazirani staged a walkout.

TEXT OF RESOLUTION

The resolution as passed by the House reads as follows:—

"This House recommends to Government to convey to His Majesty's Government through H. E. the Viceroy the sentiments and wishes of the Muslims of this province that whereas Muslims of India are a separate nation possessing a religion, philosophy, social customs, literature, traditions, political and economic theories of their own quite different from those of the Hindus, they are justly entitled to the right, as a single, separate nation, to have Independent National States of their own, carved out in the zones where they are in majority in the sub-continent of India:

"Wherefore they emphatically declare that no constitution shall be acceptable to them that will place the Muslims under a Central Government dominated by another nation, as in order to be able to play their part freely on their own distinct lines in the order of things to come, it is necessary for them to have Independent National States of their own with safeguards for minorities and hence any attempt to subject the Muslims of India under one Central Government is bound to result in disastrous and unhappy consequences."—A.P.

Hockey Final Drawn

The Bombay Provincial Hockey Championship Final between "The Times of India" Sports Club and the Lusitanians resulted in a goalless draw on Tuesday evening. The Lusitanians were unlucky not to have lifted the trophy for they had the better of the match for most part and more scoring chances. A. E. D'Souza missed a "Sitter" in the first half of play.

The Final will be replayed this evening, commencing at 6 p.m.

PRODUCTION OF DETENU

High Court's Jurisdiction

(Before the Hon. Mr. Justice Chagla)

T. M. Kajiji and Another ..... Plaintiffs
Versus
C. M. Warad and Others ..... Defendants.

This was an application on behalf of the plaintiffs under Section 35 of the Prisoners Act of 1900 for an order directing the Superintendent of the Central Prison at Yeravda to produce one Ishwarlal Somabhai Patel in this Court for giving evidence in this matter. Ishwarlal has been detained in the Yeravda Prison under Rule 26 of the Defence of India Rules.

The suit was for recovery of a sum of Rs. 1,13,000 from the first defendant who the plaintiffs contended was indebted in that sum to the second defendant company whose assignees the plaintiffs were. It was urged on behalf of the plaintiffs that Ishwarlal being the auditor of the second defendant company was in a position to depose to the facts of the case, and therefore was a necessary witness.

Opposing this application on behalf of the Government, the Advocate-General contended that from the preamble as well as the provisions of the Prisoners Act, it was clear that the Act applied only to persons committed to custody by any Court and had no application whatever to a case like the present where the detention was by an executive order of the Government. He therefore, contended that the Court had no jurisdiction to order the production of a detenu before it to give evidence.

His Lordship accepted the Advocate-General's arguments and held that the Preamble as well as the whole scheme of the Act showed that it was not intended by the Legislature to empower a Court of Law to regulate the movements of a person detained by an executive order and that the scope of the Act was confined to prisoners detained by order of a Court. His Lordship therefore dismissed the application.

Mr. V. F. Taraporewalla instructed by Messrs. S. F. B. Tyabji and Co. appeared for the applicants.

The Advocate-General Mr. N. P. Engineer instructed by Messrs. Little and Co. appeared for the Government.

JAME EDITOR FINED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

(Before the Hon. the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Weston.)

Dorabji Sorabji Pandey ..... Applicant.
Versus
A. P. Marzban, Editor, Printer and Publisher of "Jam-e-Jamshed" ..... Opponent.

The opponent who was the Editor of a vernacular Bombay daily was fined Rs. 200 for Contempt of Court.

A complaint had been filed by the applicant against one J. N. Marshai and a cross-complaint by the latter against the former, both in the Dadar Police Court, over some dispute arising from the petitioner's son, having been married to Marshal's daughter. Both these cases are still pending. In this connection, the applicant's son published a notice in the "Jam-e-Jamshed" of 16th November 1942. On 7th December 1942, an article was published in that paper purporting to be a statement of the wife's case. In the present proceedings, the applicant alleged that this article amounted to contempt of court.

Their Lordships were of the opinion that it was most undesirable that any publication of that sort should take place and marked their strong disapproval of the opponent's conduct. Their Lordships observed that he had not tendered any apology and fined him Rs. 200 out of which they directed that Rs. 50 be paid to the applicant.

Mr. Murzban J. Mistree and Sir Jamshedji Kanga instructed by Messrs. Chitnis and Kanga appeared for the applicant.

Mr. E. B. Ghasvalla with Mr. R. R. Dadachanji appeared for the opponent.

THE OUTLOOK

Wednesday was a day of thanksgiving and rejoicing in the city, as it must have been throughout the country at the happy end of Gandhiji's fast. The joy was, of course, tempered by the thought that he is still a prisoner together with most other Congress leaders. That thought reminds one that in a sense all Indians are prisoners, being subject to foreign rule and, therefore, unable to give to their country the full measure of service which only free citizens can give. So long as Gandhiji was fasting public attention was naturally concentrated on that event. But now that the fast has ended, the mind goes back to the unresolved deadlock in the country. And some of the statements made by Government in connection with the fast give one the impression that unless Gandhiji and other Congress leaders admit their responsibility for the violent activities in the country, express regret for it and cancel "their movement" there can be no negotiations with them.

Position Of Congress

Now, we can imagine the Congress making large concessions for a constitutional settlement in the midst of the war, even larger than those made during the negotiations with Sir Stafford Cripps. But Congress cannot possibly accept responsibility for a movement which is largely the consequence of Government's own "leonine violence" and which began after most Congress leaders were jailed. Nor can Congress cancel or modify a movement not started by it. It cannot even make an a tempt to do so when its leaders are in jail and not allowed to issue a joint statement in reply to Government's charges. If, Government insist on Congress stultifying itself before opening negotiations with it, there can be no immediate negotiations with Congress and no complete settlement as generally understood.

New & Helpful Factors

In these circumstances, if there is to be a settlement at all, Government should be compelled by public opinion to abandon their recalcitrant attitude towards the Congress and open negotiations with it as well as with other major political bodies. One effective way to bring about the former result is for the Congress and the Muslim League to come to some agreement even of a tentative character and present a united demand to Government. But this and a wider settlement are possible only if Congress leaders are released or at least allowed to be interviewed by other political leaders. If the latter concession is granted by Government to begin with, it may lead to important results which Government themselves may welcome if they want a settlement at all. The fast has already brought into play some new and very helpful factors. It has intensified the desire to promote unity among the people by all possible means. Secondly, Gandhiji has proclaimed to the world that he continues to adhere to non-violence. Several non-Congress leaders like Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru have begun to feel from this statement that if Gandhiji is released, it will not only help to check the prevalent violence but even to bring about a general settlement. Finally, several leaders like Mr. Rajagopalachari have actually talked to Gandhiji and have felt more hopeful about a settlement than they did before. The helpful forces which have been released by the fast should, therefore, be given fuller play; and to this end Government ought to allow leaders like Mr. Rajagopalachari, Mr. Aney Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru and Dr. Jayakar to interview Gandhiji. Secondly, the whole situation deserves to be seriously considered afresh by the Leaders' Conference which, Mr. Rajagopalachari rightly suggests, should meet again.

Chinese Mission

While bidding good-bye to the Turkish Press Delegation, we have the pleasure and privilege to welcome to India the Chinese Educational Mission, which arrived in Delhi on Monday. The object of this Mission is to study the educational and cultural institutions in India and generally to promote the cultural solidarity between China and India. In a brief but impressive address to a press conference the leader of the Mission, Dr. Y. H. Ku, said: "It is our hope that henceforth the 300 million people of India and China will dedicate themselves to the task of promoting that cultural solidarity through mutual exchange of knowledge and experience to the fullest extent. Our two peoples must understand each other fully and co-operate with each other wholeheartedly if unversal brotherhood is to be a reality on this side of the Pacific." The Mission may rest assured that India will ever be ready to co-operate with China in safeguarding all common interests, and not merely cultural solidarity.

An interesting feature of the educational system of China, as pointed out by Dr. Ku, is that higher secondary schools and universities give military training as a compulsory subject, laying emphasis on discipline and physical culture. This feature explains to some extent the stubborn resistance offered by China to Japan's imperialist designs. Dr. Ku will be able to understand why a similar feature is not possible in India except on a small make-believe scale. Not less interesting is the fact, revealed by Dr. Ku, that China has separated education from religion, as in Turkey, that in none of the State schools and colleges are denominational subjects taught, and that there are no institutions meant only for one religious group or other. We can only say we envy China this great reform.

Indo-British Trade

"British papers like the "Financial Times" and British politicians like Sir Alfred Watson naturally judge the Indian budget from their own point of view. They welcome the Finance Member's prospect of India continuing to depend upon Britain for machinery and several other goods. It is true that for quite some time India will have to import foreign machinery, though not necessarily from Britain. But as early as possible she will have to be self-sufficient in respect of all her vital needs. No country can afford to forget this lesson taught by the war. India will, of course, have her foreign trade, but her economic relations with Britain will largely depend on the political ones. India's potential consumption, says the "Financial Times", must be vastly in excess of any productive capacity at present within sight. That is true at present, thanks to Britain's attitude towards Indian industries. But for that very reason India will strive to be free economically as well as politically.

Frankly Speaking

Exaggerated Alarm

General MacArthur's warning of a few days ago that the Japanese were reinforcing the arc of bases and islands north of Australia, has provoked a great deal of alarmed fluttering. Some nervous commentators and even responsible authorities read into Jap activities the imminence of a major invasion of Australia itself. All this may have been partly reasonable but it was mainly a manifestation of alarmist tendencies. Under this stress of nervousness even the simple fact was forgotten that the Japanese could not have submitted to the debacles in Papua and the Solomons after making so much sacrifice of men and material if they were really strong enough to be able only a few weeks later to launch a large scale offensive any where in the South West Pacific. But the best comment on Japanese preparations and possibilities is furnished by events subsequent to General MacArthur's warning.

Fate Of Jap Convoy

A Japanese convoy was reported the other day by Allied reconnaissance planes to be heading from New Britain to New Guinea, presumably for Lae. It was the biggest yet for its destination. But it was composed of total number of only fourteen ships. It very clearly was not intended for offensive purpose but for defensive reinforcement of Lae and Salamana. But what happened? General MacArthur's aircraft attacked it and on the very first day of the battle, the convoy in addition to losing covering 13 aircraft lost as many as four of the fourteen ships sunk or damaged. It was dispersed. The tale, however, is not yet ended. As General MacArthur's communique says the battle with the widely dispersed ships continued and we have no doubt that eventually either the Japanese attempt will be completely defeated or only a few of the ships will be able to reach their destination. This convoy is going to meet with the same disastrous fate as that of its predecessors in recent weeks. The conclusion is obvious. But whether the Japanese have rushed their resources to the South-West Pacific for suicidal offensives or, as we hope, ineffective defence, concentration in that area leaves them weak in Burma.

Round The Clock Blitz

The British, it appears, did mean it when they claimed for the present Allied air offensive from Britain the character of a round the clock blitz. It has been practically so for over a week. And it has some particularly noteworthy achievements to its credit. For instance, the attack on St. Nazaire, the main German submarine base on the Atlantic coast, has been, it reports are correct, quite devastating and ought to constitute a significant constribution to the war on U. boats. And then Berlin was subjected to the heaviest attack it has yet endured with losses in aircraft which ought really to have been higher. This attack, if fires could be visible from 200 miles, was without doubt eminently successful. The offensive so far has proved that Allied Air power has developed tremendous proportions and can now be used to great and immediate purpose not only to cripple Germany's war effort but also to prepare the way for an invasion of Hitler's Europe.

China's Need

At a Maddison Square Garden rally in honour of Madame Chiang Kai-Shek, General Arnold, Chief of the U.S. Army Air Forces, declared: "We must make provision for a wide scale bombing of Japan itself —bombing to ensure total destruction of this enemy on his own home soil". But when? Meanwhile, a desperate China cries for more material aid than the miserable help she is receiving from her Allies. The Japanese, wise in their strategy and feeling otherwise secure, have launched an offensive on the Yunnan-Burma border which, if it succeeds, may produce disastrous results for China and effectively defeat the opening of the Burma Road to China. The Chinese are fighting as best as they can. But they are up against a well armed, well equipped foe. And all the support they are getting from their Allies is a number of air raids which at best can somewhat delay but certainly not check Jap progress.

Indo-British War Bill Allocation

Federation Of Indian Chambers Protests Against Widening Terms Of Financial Settlement

BOMBAY, Wednesday.

The Committee of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry have issued the following statement with regard to the Budget Proposals of the Government of India for the year 1943-44:

"The Committee of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry have fully considered the Budget presented by the Honourable the Finance Member of the Government of India and have to state at the outset, that it is framed in a background which is hardly appropriate to the realities of the political and economic situation in the country and consequent organisation and financing of national defence. With the continuance of the unfortunate political deadlock on the one hand and the utter disregard of responsible public opinion on the other, the Government of India have isolated themselves from active currents in Indian national life. Proposals of expenditure, taxation and borrowing are indissolubly interlinked with questions of policy in regard to the Constitution and Defence. While the Committee of the Federation fully realise the need of legitimate expenditure incurred for India's defence requirements, they are bound to point out that the representatives of the Indian people have no control over the defence policy of their own country or over the armed forces which operate on behalf of India.

The Committee would, in this connection, like to mention that no decision should be reached regarding the permanent revision of the Railway Separation Convention of 1924, while the Legislature is unrepresentative and conditions abnormal. Similarly, the Committee feel that no important decisions should be reached by the Government in regard to the financial settlement or adjustments without full consultation and consent of a Central Legislature which is effectively functioning. The Committee apprehend that the British Government are now endeavouring to go back upon the principle enunciated by Sir Stafford Cripps that there should be no special protection for British commercial interests in India by seeking to recognise the British commercial community as a minority interest by the appointment of one of their representatives to the Executive Council in charge of the largest asset of India, namely the Railway System.

WAR BILL ALLOCATION

While the financial settlement between His Majesty's Government and the Government of India remains unchanged in letter, the vital question is of its interpretation and application. It is clear from the speech of the Finance Member that the terms of the settlement are being unduly widened in order to include certain items of expenditure under "India's War Measures", which cannot equitably and legitimately be debitable to India.

While it is but fair that the cost of raising, training and equipping of Indian troops sent overseas should be borne by His Majesty's Government, the question of allocating the cost of their maintenance in India, prior to their dispatch outside the country, or subsequent to their return to India, is one of importance and deserves careful consideration. The Committee, however, take strong exception to the policy of sending Indian troops abroad and replacing them by British troops to defend India because not only does it evince a lack of confidence in the ability of Indians to defend their own land but it also imposes upon India a huge and unjustifiable burden of maintaining British troops which cost the country several times more than the cost incurred in maintaining Indian troops.

RECIPROCAL LEASE-LEND

While the Committee approve of the proposal to enter into a direct mutual-aid agreement with the U.S.A. in regard to Lease-Lend, they consider that it is essential to see that the value of the reciprocal Lease-Lend supplies does not in any case exceed the value of the aid actually received by India under Lease-Lend. It is also imperative to safeguard fully the fiscal autonomy of India in concluding the master agreement with U.S.A.

STERLING BALANCES

The Committee are not satisfied with the manner in which the Finance Member has dealt with the whole question of utilisation of India's growing sterling balances. In view of the possibilities of the depreciation of sterling in future, the country was entitled to expect that the Finance Member would secure adequate safeguards to maintain the value and free convertibility of our sterling assets. The question has, however, been dealt with in a piecemeal manner and without relation to the fundamental issues it involves. The Committee see absolutely no reason why the Government should favour the scheme for making advance provision of sterling to meet future payments of sterling pensions, family pensions and provident funds, rather than the proposals submitted to them from time to time by Indian commercial bodies and economists for utilising sterling credits. These items of India's sterling obligations are in any event, adequately safeguarded in the Government of India Act, 1935, and there is no reason for Government to prefer the funding of this liability instead of utilising sterling more profitably and beneficially. The Committee cannot also welcome the proposal to constitute a Reconstruction Fund to provide for the financing of a programme of post-war reconstruction. They are emphatically of opinion that there should be no restriction whatever on the right and power of India to make purchases in whatever markets she considers necessary, that is, in the cheapest and best markets, and the Government should not make any post-war commitments about India's sterling resources which would freeze our sterling balances only for purchases exclusively from the United Kingdom. Under these circumstances, the Committee cannot but characterise such a post-war reconstruction fund as one designed to subsidise British exports and assist the rehabilitation of British industries in the post-war period.

INFLATIONARY TENDENCIES

Although the Finance Member has not denied the existence of inflationary tendency, he has not appreciated its potentialities or its effects on the economy of the country. The emphasis which the Finance Member has laid on the vital need of borrowing seems somewhat misplaced, in view of the past experience in respect of Government borrowing. The programme of borrowing hitherto followed by the Government has not met with adequate public response, mainly because the Government, as constituted at present and owing to their policy have failed to inspire sufficient public confidence and enthusiasm.

Before dealing with the taxation proposals, the Committee have to state that the Government of India have followed the policy, which they seem to have deliberately adopted for the last few years, of underestimating revenue receipts. If more accurate and scientific estimates are adopted, the estimated deficits in the budget would convey a truer picture of the financial position of the Central Government. That the taxable capacity of the Indian people has really been reached is conclusively proved by the fact that even articles commonly used by the masses, such as tobacco and vegetable ghee, have now been selected for the purpose of taxation. In India, tobacco is the only luxury within the reach of the poor man and its taxation would bear heavily on him. Similarly, the tax on vegetable ghee is a 'kitchen tax'; in view of the chronic scarcity of supply of ghee in India, vegetable ghee has come to fill the gap. A tax on such an article of daily requirement would have the effect of reducing the consumption of this nutritive fat diet and thereby would have an adverse effect on the standard of living of the people, especially the middle-classes, when the duty works out to one anna per lb on an article costing seven annas per lb. The Committee apprehend that these additional sources of indirect taxation will not merely remain emergency measures, but are likely to be converted into permanent features of the taxation system of the country.

The Committee are of opinion that the proposal regarding increase in Central surcharges and in the Corporation Tax is likely to handicap the financing of industries and to prevent industries from making adequate provision for the post-war period. The increases are bound to eat into the normal profits of industry, contrary to the principle enunciated by the Finance Member in taxing war profits, and also to react prejudicially on the investment habit of the people.

In view of the heavy financial burden imposed on the country for the fourth year in succession, the Committee cannot help concluding that only the establishment of a National Government at the Centre would ensure that stability and confidence which are the bedrock of war-time as well as post-war economy of the country."

Assembly Passes Reciprocity Bill

Govt. Spokesman Accepts Principle; But Cautions Against Retaliation

NEW DELHI, MARCH 3.

THE ASSEMBLY PASSED MR. GOVIND DESHMUKH'S RECIPROCITY BILL PROVIDING THAT PERSONS DOMICILED IN ANY BRITISH POSSESSION SHALL BE ENTITLED ONLY TO SUCH RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES AS REGARDS ENTRY, TRAVEL, RESIDENCE, ACQUISITION, HOLDING AND DISPOSAL OF PROPERTY EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES, FRANCHISE, THE HOLDING OF PUBLIC OFFICE, OR THE CARRYING ON OF ANY OCCUPATION, BUSINESS, TRADE OR PROFESSION IN BRITISH INDIA AS ARE ACCORDED BY THE LAW OR ADMINISTRATION OF SUCH POSSESSION TO PERSONS OF INDIAN ORIGIN.

Proviso For Armed Forces

Mr. Deshmukh moving consideration of the Bill emphasised the proviso laying down that the provisions relating to entry, travel and residence shall not apply to any person in the armed forces of a British possession until the expiry of one year after the termination of the present hostilities. He said that in accepting this proviso the Select Committee on the bill had impressed on Government their anxiety that all possible action should at once be taken to secure during the war for Indians the same rights, treatment and privileges as are accorded to members of the Home forces or the forces of any other Government.

Mr. Hussainbhai Lalji, Mr. Navalrai, Maulana Zafarali and Mr. Ghulam Bhik Narang supported the Bill.

MAY PROVE A BOOMERANG

Mr. G. S. Bozman, Secretary, Indians Overseas Department, pointed out there never had been any difference between Government and members of the House with regard to the principle of reciprocity embodied in the bill. It was a principle enshrined elsewhere and there was no difficulty for Government in accepting it. The only point he would make was that as a reciprocity bill it was entirely unobjectionable; as a retaliatory bill it was one to be regarded with care and administered with care. A measure which was purely retaliatory in its object not only put an end to possible negotiations but might in certain circumstances have a boomerang effect, which was not originally intended. It was for Government to see that when the act was applied no such adverse effect was caused to India by its application.

Speaking of the proviso relating to the troops, Mr. Bozman said that as far as he saw the only part of the Empire where Indian Troops were liable to treatment different from that which was accorded to other troops was South Africa. That question had been taken up by the Government of India who had been in correspondence with the Union Government, and every possible arrangement had been made with the willing co-operation of the Union Government to see that Indian troops were treated there as well as other visitors.

The House accepted the motion for consideration and passed the bill.

FOR ABOLITION OF ASSESSORS

Qazi Mohd. Ahmed Kazmi moved that his bill further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 for the abolition of Sessions Trials with the aid of Assessors be referred to a Select Committee.

He said a large bulk of opinions received were in favour of his bill.

Mr. Deshmukh supported the motion, while Mr. Lalchand Navalrai said that the mover ought to have suggested an alternative system when he was urging for the abolition of the present one.

Discussion had not concluded when the Assembly adjourned till Friday.

Muslim Wakfs

The Central Assembly to-day, passed Mr. Mohd. Abdul Ghani's Bill to provide for the better administration of Muslim Wakfs in the Province of Delhi, as reported and amended by the Joint Committee. Two amendments by the mover were also incorporated in the draft.

Sir Sultan Ahmed, Law Member, paid a tribute to the mover, and expressed the hope that it would turn out to be a model bill for the whole of India. (Cheers).—A. P.

'Cut' Motions In Assembly

(From Our Correspondent.)

NEW DELHI, March 3.

The first batch of budget cut motions shows an interesting variety Sardar Sant Singh has a token cut motion to discuss the Government's refusal to release Gandhiji and also failure to establish National Government at centre. Other subjects raised by the Nationalist members include an inquiry into excesses in suppressing disturbances, the publication of the Home Department's booklet "containing one-sided version of violence in India." Mr. N. M Joshi has two cut motions relating to the treatment of detenus and the release of political prisoners, but he is unfortunately ill in hospital.

The European Group wants to discuss means whereby "the present prosperous agricultural conditions" might be used for the permanent rehabilitation of agriculture in India. The Muslim League's motions relate mostly to the paucity of the Muslims in service. There is also a cut motion to discuss the need to start an automobile industry in India.

THE HUMAN SIDE OF THE FAST

(From 'Chronicle Special Correspondent)

POONA, March 2.

One of the greatest stories of human interest, as the foreign press has described it, the three-weeks' fast launched by Mahatma Gandhi at the Palace of the Aga Khan has terminated, after setting to the unusually large press contingent gathered here one of the biggest problems of covering news. For the first few days of the penance of the Mahatma, the long hours of the nights seemed to be an eternity as pressmen kept a watch, sometimes standing on the dust ridden Poona-Ahmednagar road and sometimes lolling in a taxi in front of the Palace of the Aga Khan. Every avenue of news has been tapped, every hour of th, day and night and telephone and telegraph wires have relayed from Poona a wordage that has exceeded any output on the wires in recent months.

The fast has given to the press many touches of human interest though most of them used in the press dispatches have reference to the previous fasts and not the present one. Dr Bidhan Chandra Roy for instance, recalled an instance during one of the nineteen fasts of Gandhiji when he (Dr. Roy) entered into a bet with the Mahatma. Dr. Roy who never imagined that Gandhiji could be conversant with the Bengali script, gave a "non-violent" challenge to the Mahatma to sign his name in Bengali.

"What is the bet?" asked Bapuji with a smile.

Dr. Roy promptly agreed to part with Rs. 25, if Bapuji managed to scrawl his name in Bengali. The doctor's purse was thinner by Rs. 25.

Dr. Roy has often referred to Gandhiji as a carnivorous animal during his fasts, because, according to medical theory a man on fast lives on his own tissues. "I have been a vegetarian all my life" protested Gandhiji when Dr. Roy called him a cannibal on one occasion.

TORY ORGAN'S HOMILY

(From Our Own Correspondent).

LONDON, March 2.

Commenting on the three members' resignations from the Viceroy's Council "Great-Britain and the East" says: "All these men have been jointly responsible with the other members of the Government for the measures taken against Congress. They have borne testimony to the fact that they had been treated with utmost consideration by the Viceroy. Their action illustrates one of the defects that has been apparent enough as governing powers have been extended to Indians. There is fear of taking personal responsibility on the part of Indians though high in office. Unless that dread of taking unpopular action can be overcome democratic institutions will not survive in India. Governments must be prepared to govern and face the consequences. Ministers who have collective responsibility as in this case must stand together to the end and not be carried away by emotionalism".

WITHOUT COMMENT—

"We must not tolerate Japanese or German militarism under new names and new flags. We must not drive the forces of imperialism, totalitarianism and aggression underground. We must annihilate these evil forces and show that the age of imperialism is ended."

—Mr. Joseph Grew, former U. S. Ambassador to Japan.

Wednesday, will live like a Red Letter Day in the history of this country.

But we shall not talk about it just yet. One aspect of our thoughts which nearly dominates the rest had better remain unexpressed.

So let's pass on to other things.

"....So is British Imperialism very different from the Imperialism of the last century."—Sir Rustom Masani.

We are slightly surprised. We expected Sir Rustom Masani to deny that British Imperialism existed at all now in any shape or from.

The Governor of the U. P. has, we learn, banned the film entitled "March of Freedom" in the whole of the United Provinces.

His Excellency Sir Maurice Hallet is at least logical.

The very first day of the battle (which continues) with the boosted big Jap convoy heading to new Guinea. American bombers have sunk or damaged nearly one-third of it in addition to destroying some fourteen Jap planes.

So much for the recent alarms raised over the imminence of serious Japanese excursions.

A man went dashing down the railway platform just in time to see his train disappearing from view.

As he stood puffing and blowing, a porter came up.

"Miss the train?" he asked.

"Not so very much", replied the other. "You see, I never had the time to get really fond of it."

INDIAN RED CROSS DRIVE

Exhibition Baseball Match

The famous American national game of baseball will be on exhibition in Bombay this week in connection with the Indian Red Cross drive. Teams made up from among the civilians resident here, and the armed forces of the United States in this area, have been working out and are prepared to stage an exhibition game at the Brabourne Stadium on Sunday afternoon, March 7th at 4-30 p.m.

The game of baseball, which is played upon a professional, semi-professional and amateur basis in practically every city and town of the United States, also has a popular version, or younger brother, usually known as "Soft Ball", and this is the type of game that will be played in Bombay for Red Cross week. It involves the use of a larger ball, smaller playing field and lighter bats than for regular baseball, but for all practical purposes the game is the same and it will be presented to the public in Bombay as simply Baseball.

One of the novel features about baseball in the United States is the "back chat" or "side-line patter" which continually goes on the part of the spectators, and sometimes involves the players themselves. In spite of the fact that the American community in Bombay is very limited in number at present, this feature will doubtless be in evidence when the game is played next Sunday. It is planned to have a loud speaker system installed, with a commentator who will review the game as it progresses.

It cannot be anticipated that any of the homeric feats of a "Babe Ruth" or a "Ty Cobb" will be demonstrated in Bombay, but the Service boys have a few "Lions" that they have been putting through their paces, and the civilians have at least a couple of "tigers" in reserve who are prepared to go into action and a well-matched exhibition is to be expected.

The Cricket Club of India has arranged to make the facilities of the Brabourne Stadium available for this benefit game, and all the receipts will go into the Indian Red Cross Fund.

The Band of the East Yorkshire Regiment will be in attendance and the first ball will be thrown by Mr. Howard Donovan, the American Consul in Bombay.

Over-Crowded Trains

To The Editor of "The Chronicle".

Sir,—We crave the hospitality of your esteemed daily to ventilate a grievance of passengers travelling from Kathiawar to Bombay.

At Viramgam the passengers have to wait for hours and hours together in order to catch a train for Bombay. The compartments get overpacked in no time.

It is our suggestion that The Gujarat Mail too should be run from Viramgam to Bombay instead of from Ahmedabad to Bombay, and that the two trains that thus start from Viramgam should run at twelve hours' interval, preferably one in the morning and another late in the evening.—Yours, etc.,

THOSE THAT TRAVEL LESS AND ONLY WHEN THEY MUST.

Malta Relieved, Gets All Supplies, Convoys Reach Africa

LONDON, March 3.

Reuter's special correspondent with the Mediterranean fleet writes.

On Board the flag ship of the western Mediterranean battle squadron:—Britain is using the waters of the Mediterranean as far as she needs. Malta is relieved and getting all the supplies she requires and the island's position is now secure.

The Vice-Admiral, flying his flag in this battleship told me this on Tuesday. He said: "So long as the Italian fleet retains its passive role there will be little change. We are able to take our soldiers and supplies right forward into Tunisian ports unchallenged by enemy surface craft, although of course subject to normal submarine and air attack."

Day and night Britain's light naval units are at sea convoying Allied merchantmen, which continue to arrive in a steady stream at our North African ports.

The speed with which British and American supplies are landed and cleared in ports is remarkable. It is only few days since I watched convoy of American transports, loaded to Plimsoll line with troops, guns and aircraft, unloaded, turned round and sent to sea again within 96 hours..—Reuter.

POLICE AVERT CLASH AMONG JUTE MILL MEN

Open Fire On Two Sections Of Rioters

CALCUTTA, March 3

The police had to open fire of one round yesterday in order to avert a major clash between two sections of labourers in a jute mill in the suburbs of Howrah.

It is stated that following the replacement of a number of up-country operators of the jute mill who left their jobs, resentment was expressed by them on return from their native villages. They, it is alleged, set fire to a shed erected for wrestling purposes and threw brickbats at a police party.

The situation was brought under control after the firing as a result of which four persons received slight injuries.—United Press.

Major Wilson-Brand Awarded Chinese Military Medal

LONDON, March 3.

"Services in the cause of the Allies", Major A. T. Wilson-Brand, Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, has been awarded the Chinese army navy and airforce medal, Class A first grade.

The announcement that the decoration had been conferred upon him by the President of the National Government of the Chinese Republic was made in London on Tuesday. It did not say what Major Wilson-Brand's services were.

Men of Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders fought gallantly in the campaign in Malaya. After many rearguard actions the 93rd battalion withdrew to Singapore for reinforcements and then crossed to the mainland with pipes playing to act as rearguard for the final withdrawal from Johore. A detachment of the regiment cut off from support and with no hope of escape held on to their position to the least.—Reuter.

The battle continues with the remnants of the Japanese convoy dispersed over a wide area. Allies' losses have been light.—Reuter.

LATE MAHADEV'S ASHES IMMERSED IN INDRIYANI

POONA, March 3.

The ashes of the late Mahadev Desai were thrown this morning into the Indriyani River at Alandi, a sacred place of pilgrimage some 12 miles from here.

The throwing of the ashes was timed for 9 a.m. to synchronise with the breaking of the fast by Mahatma Gandhi. The ashes wre kept in a khadi bag in the living room of Mahatma Gandhi all these months.

Swami Anand, a close associate of Mahatma Gandhi and a fast friend of the late Mahadev Desai took the ashes from Aga Khan Palace this morning.

The bag containing the ashes was handed over by Mr. Pyarelal to Swami Anand at the inner gate of the palace. Three Hindu police officers accompanied Swami Anand to Alandi where it was immersed with due rites.

Swami Anand performed "Sankalp and Tharpana" and "Dakshina" was given to Brahmins. Two Harijans were also invited to participate in the ceremony.—A. P.

GERMANY'S OIL OUTPUT TREMENDOUS, WARNS ICKES

NEW YORK, March 3.

MAGNESITE DEPOSITS IN SALEM EXAMINED

Can Be Used In Manufacture Of Magnesium Metal

MADRAS, March 2.

A Press Note says:—

The Magnesite deposits of the Salem District were examined by the Geological Survey of India during the field seasons of 1940-41 and 1941-42 and the report thereon will be published separately. The results of the examination are briefly indicated below:—

The magnesite deposits occur in the Chalk Hills, Kanjamalai Hill, Siranganur, Kunda Malai, Valaiyapatti, Sirapalli, Isvaramalai, Pavittiram, Koneripatti and Tiruppangili. Of these, the deposits in Tiruppangili, Koneripatti, Kunda Malai and Kanja Malai are not of much importance.

The occurrence in Isvaramalai was not investigated. The deposits in Valaiyapatti though not very important are worth prospecting.

Salem magnesite on account of its purity is suitable as raw material for the manufacture of magnesium metal. It is also known to be suitable for the manufacture of fused magnesia.

During the field season of 1941-42 the Vempalle limestone delta east of the Papaghni River upto Cuddapah was mapped. Particular attention was paid to mineral occurrences.

PROMISING OCCURANCES

In the area surveyed the following minerals of economic importance occur.

Asbestos, darytes, building stones, iron-ores, ochre, none of these occurrences are promising. The quality of iron ore in Chadali is good but the quantity available is not sufficient to justify commercial exploitation. But much of the material is fairly soft and of good colour and is suitable for use as paint material. A small quantity which was ground and mixed with linseed oil and painted showed that the colour of the paint was dark red (nearly maroon). These deposits appear to be worth exploiting for use as a paint pigment.—A. P.

Britain Building High Speed Vessels

LONDON, March 3.

One-third of ocean going vessels now under construction belong to high speed category, the Minister of War Transport, Lord Leathers, stated in the House of Lords to-day. "The British policy", he said "is to build ships carrying the maximum cargo with the greatest possible safety. We have not unlimited manpower. Building faster ships means building fewer ships; thus a 15 knot vessel requires half as long again as an eleven knot vessel of the same capacity. Faster ships require 50 per cent. more labour and material. We are building as many fast ships as possible without upsetting the balance of production. There is no advantage in building ships faster than convoy speed unless fast enough to go independently. I am fully satisfied that we are using shipbuilding and engineering capacity of the very utmost in building ships most urgently required for war purposes".—Reuter

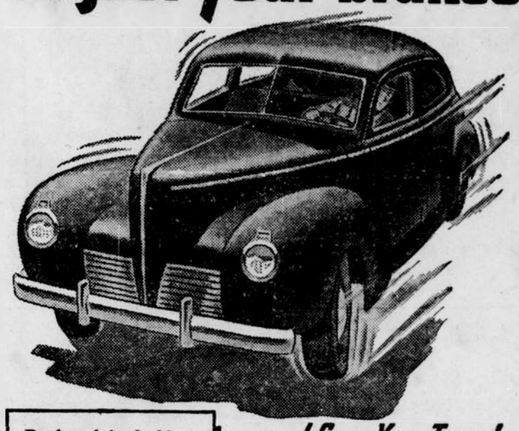
Adjust your brakes



Do these 4 simple things to save your tyres:—
1. Cut down your driving speed.
2. Have air pressure checked regularly.
3. Keep your brakes equalised.
4. Rotate your tyres every 2,000 miles.

GOODYEAR TYRES

-and Save Your Tyres!

Unequally adjusted brakes cause one tyre to grip more than the other. Naturally, that tyre wears out more quickly.

Stepping hard on the brakes at only 35 miles per hour can wear away enough tread to carry your car one more road mile.

Keep your brakes equalised—and save your tyres!

MORE PEOPLE, THE WORLD OVER, RIDE ON GOODYEAR TYRES THAN ON ANY OTHER MAKE.

HERE'S REAL ECONOMY
TOILET SOAP AT THE PRICE OF WASHING SOAP!

Would you believe that this high-quality toilet soap costs no more than ordinary washing soap? Then why deprive ourselves of the benefit and pleasure of using an out and out superior soap? How its foaming lather cleanses and refreshes my poor, tired body . . . . so different from the irritating, watery thing! They tell me this 'chavi' brand soap—like the other Godrej toilet soaps—is cent per cent pure soap, elaborately manufactured (as toilet soaps should be), from soothing vegetable oils only; it is not forty per cent water, as those washing soaps are. Its sweet scent tickles my nostrils; and the gay get-up is a treat for my jaded eyes. If I had only known earlier, I would not have wronged my human skin by using any odd soap, especially when this reliable Turkish Bath costs only as little as washing soap. Anyway, better late than never!

I have just heard the rather priceless story of Mr. Churchill on his last Middle East visit. A certain too-well-known Brigadier had moved very high authorities to get a spare seat on a particular plane which was also the plane Mr. Churchill and his entourage were to use. Now the story goes that Mr. Churchill was travelling on this occasion with his valet and Mr. Churchill's party had unexpectedly increased by one. It was very tactfully pointed out to Mr. Churchill that as they had believed there was a spare seat on the plane they had given it to this Brigadier. "There's your valet, sir, and there's this Brigadier" the aviation officer told Mr. Churchill, "and there's only one seat between them. What would you like us to do?" Quick came Churchill's reply: "In that case, of course, we take the valet."

NEWSPAPERS' SIZE & PRICE

Month's Time To Be Allowed For Making Necessary Changes

NEW DELHI, March 3.

Representations have been received from newspapers that it will be difficult for them to comply with the requirements of that portion of the amending order issued by Gazette of India extraordinary on February 27, 1943. which relates to the reduction of the number of pages admissible to newspapers per price category by half says a press note.

In order to cause the minimum of inconvenience to the editors and proprietors of newspapers, consistent with the urgent necessity for economising in the consumption of newsprint, the Government of India have decided to allow one month's time for making the necessary changes. An Amending notification will, therefore, issue postponing the date of operation of the relevant clause to April 1, 1943.—A. P.

BOMBAY STOCK EXCHANGE

Bombay, Mar. 3.

The Central Budget helped bullish enthusiasm and buyers predominated with the result that quotations reached new high level. The market feeling is bullish but in view of extensive improvement it will be advisable to be cautious. The industrial outlook is encouraging but at the same time all known bullish factors are well discounted. The rise in raw cotton prices is likely to have adverse effect on earnings of the textile industry and it will be advisable to liquidate a portion of holdings on rising markets with a view to replace on decline which are bound to come in due course. The market will have to adjust sooner or later.

Tata Steel Dfd shares opened to-day at Rs. 1915 and after advancing to Rs. 1922 reacted to Rs. 1907 on moderate realising. Ordinary shares opened at Rs. 387 and after advancing to Rs. 389 eased off to Rs. 385. Bombay Dyeing shares opened at Rs. 1915 and advanced to Rs. 1925 Century shares opened at Rs. 722 and after advancing to Rs. 734 reacted to Rs. 730 Kohinoor Mill shares were quoted at Rs. 744 Associated Cement shares opened at Rs 215 and improved to Rs. 216/8.

The Wall Street market opened irregular yesterday and was fairly active and continued to retreat with traders cautious and was inclined to take profits on the idea that the market May adopt correcting attitude after advancing to the highest average levels since November 1940. Low prices issues again appeared in large blocs. The market continued to slide back in the afternoon although the momentum was well below Monday's the largest turnover for more than a year. Generally good war news was bolstering and initial losses were reduced near the close with a smattering of gains in evidence.

There was moderate business in the local market. The improvement was maintained and tone was very steady. Later on there was some realising in Steel Shares but Mill Shares ruled firm. Closing quotations were as under :—

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET

Bombay, Mar. 3.

On Tuesday the local market was quietly steady with a moderate turnover. About 1100 bales tenders were issued against March delivery which induced moderate liquidation. There was Commission House liquidation which encountered trade demand and New Orleans buying. The market was very steady and closed at about the highest level of the day.

At the opening July was quoted 5 points down at 19.81 and improved to 19.94 which was the highest level. The market closed at a net decline of 4 points to a rise of 8 points. Spot cotton prices were not received.

The New Orleans cotton futures market was also very steady and closed unchanged to 6 points higher.

The general feeling is moderately bullish. It is said that war demand for clothing will be under the last year but the Farm Bloc is agitating for higher prices and now there is a demand for removal of crop control.
